Some help, please! If you use the building for anything outside regular worship, please remember to clean up after yourself. We all know that elves and fairies do not clean up after us, but sometimes we pretend they do. So if you use them, wash, dry and put away your dishes. Take out any excessive trash you may produce (don't worry about the usual drink cups and paper). If you happen to spill some coffee, or drop cookie crumbs, please take a second to clean it up. It will help a lot with our tiny, uninvited guests (you know the kind...) in the long run. There are several people who contribute regularly to the well-being of the building, but they need everyone to be responsible for their own "extra" building use. Everyone will appreciate it. Thanks!

Satellite High is accepting donations of formal gowns. Students in Fashion classes will re-style the dresses and donate them to girls unable to afford a new dress for prom. If you have any unneeded formal dresses or gowns, please bring them in. Margaret W. is our contact person for this endeavor. While you're at it, clear out some of those dressy shoes you never use, too!

This World is Not My Home

Closing Prayer, Chris Ankersen

After the Sabbath, at dawn on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to look at the tomb. There was a violent earthquake, for an angel of the Lord came down from heaven and, going to the tomb, rolled back the stone and sat on it. His appearance was like lightning, and his clothes were white as snow. The guards were so afraid of him that they shook and became like dead men. The angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. He is not here, he is risen, just as he said. Come and see the place where he lay. Matthew 28:1—6
