

The Meaning of the Resurrection

I Cor 15:13-19

I. What about the Resurrection of Christ?

What do others think about the resurrection?

Are not all religions good, don't they all lead to God?

II. What do Christians think about the Resurrection?

How do Christians answer questions about the resurrection?

III. What does the Resurrection mean for Us?

Why do Christians place such importance on this event?

Pantry Report for week ending April 20
101 households visited the pantry, feeding a total of 305 people.

PANTRY PONDERINGS...

Plastic and paper bags are constantly needed, and shoe boxes can always be donated, too.

When you shop, if you ask for bags to be doubled, it's already done when you are ready to donate! Otherwise, it's a big help to us if you have time to double bag plastic bags before bringing them in. Paper bags are also needed. They do not have to be doubled.

Thank you so very much.

Have you tried a shampoo, conditioner, lotion, or cleaning product and found it wasn't really what you wanted? Instead of throwing it out, bring it in to the pantry. It can be passed on to someone who might use it.

 Message: "The Meaning of the Resurrection," Jim Conn
 Closing Comments and Closing Prayer, Bill Werner

If there is no resurrection of the dead, then not even Christ has been raised. And if Christ has not been raised, our preaching is useless and so is your faith. . . . And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile; you are still in your sins. Then those also who have fallen asleep in Christ are lost. If only for this life we have hope in Christ, we are to be pitied more than all men.

1 Corinthians 15:13–14; 17–19

GOD'S WORD ON THE RESURRECTION

Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will live, even though he dies; and whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?" (John 11:25-26)

... and who (Jesus) through the Spirit of holiness was declared with power to be the Son of God by his resurrection from the dead: Jesus Christ our Lord. (Romans 1:4)

For what I received I passed on to you as of first importance: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Peter, and then to the Twelve. (1 Corinthians 15:3-4)

But if it is preached that Christ has been raised from the dead, how can some of you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? If there is no resurrection of the dead, then not even Christ has been raised. And if Christ has not been raised, our preaching is useless and so is your faith...And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile; you are still in your sins. (1 Corinthians 15:12-14, 17)

"Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?" The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. (1 Corinthians 15:55b-57)

For Christ's love compels us, because we are convinced that one died for all, and therefore all died. And he died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for him who died for them and was raised again. (2 Corinthians 5:14-15)

I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the fellowship of sharing in his suffering, becoming like him in his death, and so, somehow, to attain to the resurrection from the dead. (Philippians 3:10-11)
