Fathers Day

Though not recognized by Presidential Proclamation until 1972, Fathers Day was begun in 1910 by the daughter of a Civil War soldier who had raised his 6 children as a single parent. By 1913, it was a widely celebrated day of honor for fathers across the United States. Several presidents tried to proclaim it a national holiday, but congress opposed it in each case, until finally, Richard Nixon prevailed in 1972! Thus, we have a government sanctioned day to honor our fathers, but we who know Christ know it's scriptural, and we honor God by honoring our fathers.
Happy Fathers Day!
