Worship and Family News for the Church of Christ Oceanside

In bringing many sons to glory, it was fitting that God, for whom and through whom everything exists, should make the author of their salvation perfect through suffering. Both the one who makes men holy and those who are made holy are of the same family. So Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers. He says, "I will declare your name to my brothers; in the presence of the congregation I will sing your praises." And again, "I will put my trust in him." And again he says, "Here am I, and the children God has given me."

Since the children have flesh and blood, he too shared in their humanity so that by his death he might destroy him who holds the power of death — that is, the devil — and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by their fear of death. For surely it is not angels he helps, but Abraham's descendants. For this reason he had to be made like his brothers in every way, in order that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in service to God, and that he might make atonement for the sins of the people. Because he himself suffered when he was tempted, he is able to help those who are being tempted.

Why the Cross

I. The Importance of the Cross

Why is the death of Jesus, even on the Cross, important?

Matthew 20:28; 1 Corinthians 2:2

II. The Cross and Atonement of our Sins

How do we view sin, is justification important?

Romans 5:6-11

III. The Cross reveals the Character of the Father and the Son

Just how did God the Father reveal Himself to us through Jesus' death?

Romans 3:22-26; Romans 5:8; 1 John 4:9-10

IV. The Cross Conquered the Powers of Evil, Even Death

How do we see the powers of evil, even death?

Col 2:13-15; 1 Corinthians 15: 54-57

V. The Cross gave us the Perfect Savior

How is Jesus our perfect savior?

Hebrews 2:14-15; Hebrews 2:18, 5:7-10
