I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us. The creation waits in eager expectation for the sons of God to be revealed. For the creation was subjected to frustration, not by its own choice, but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself will be liberated from its bondage to decay and brought into the glorious freedom of the children of God.

We know that the whole creation has been groaning as in the pains of childbirth right up to the present time. Not only so, but we ourselves, who have the first-fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for our adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies. For in this hope we were saved. But hope that is seen is no hope at all. Who hopes for what he already has? But if we hope for what we do not yet have, we wait for it patiently. Romans 8:18—25

Family Happenings

Atha Comiskey is facilitating a Beth Moore study entitled "Children of the Day," a study of I & II Thessalonians in the Ladies Classroom. This is an 18 week interactive study that will bring our sisters closer to God and each other. We hope you will join us in this wonderful time of Bible study and fellowship. Due to the length of the videos, class will begin at 9:15

Rhonda Davis needs help cleaning up storm debris in her yard. Please let her know if you can help.

We are looking for volunteers to help teach the children's classes Sunday morning, during Sunday worship, and Wednesday evenings. Please sign up on the bulletin board or let Diane or Kristina how you would like to help.
