Message: "Money and Life," Jim Conn
Closing Comments, Bill Werner
Closing Prayer, Willie Bryant

Jesus told his disciples: "There was a rich man whose manager was accused of wasting his possessions. So he called him in and asked him, 'What is this I hear about you? Give an account of your management, because you cannot be manager any longer.' The manager said to himself, 'What shall I do now? My master is taking away my job. I'm not strong enough to dig, and I'm ashamed to beg — I know what I'll do so that, when I lose my job here, people will welcome me into their houses.' So he called in each one of his master's debtors. He asked the first, 'How much do you owe my master?' 'Eight hundred gallons of olive oil,' he replied. The manager told him, 'Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it four hundred.' Then he asked the second, 'And how much do you owe?' 'A thousand bushels of wheat,' he replied. He told him, 'Take your bill and make it eight hundred.' The master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly. For the people of this world are more shrewd in dealing with their own kind than are the people of the light. I tell you, use worldly wealth to gain friends for yourselves, so that when it is gone, you will be welcomed into eternal dwellings."

Luke 16:1—9

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

We will be having a congregational meeting on Sunday, November 17th, immediately after services. This is an opportunity to discuss some topics as a family. We plan on keeping the meeting length to about 45-60 minutes. Some of the topics planned for this meeting include: general info (since we have many new members); budget overview and discussion for the coming year; plans for elementary education; plans for cleaning out and remodeling the Miller Building. If anyone has additional topics for discussion, please see John or Bill. We plan to have these meetings quarterly; if we have more topics than time allows, we will schedule those topics for a future meeting.

Exercise at the building continues Wednesdays at 10:00 a.m.
